Consent to Teletherapy Sessions

1. I have the right to withhold or withdraw consent at any time.
2. I am a resident of the state of Mississippi. Teletherapy sessions take place in the state of Mississippi and are governed by Mississippi state law.
3. The laws that protect the confidentiality of my medical information also apply to teletherapy. Susan Woodard Psychotherapy's notice of Privacy Practices and Policies also apply to teletherapy sessions. Our teletherapy exchange is confidential, and I will not include others in the session or have others in the room unless agreed upon.
4. I understand that I am responsible for (1) providing the necessary computer, telecommunications equipment and internet access for my teletherapy sessions, (2) the information security on my computer, and (3) arranging a location with sufficient lighting and privacy that is free from distractions or intrusions for my teletherapy session.
5. I accept that teletherapy does not provide emergency services. If I am experiencing an emergency situation, I understand that I should call 911, go to my local hospital emergency room, or call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-8255 for free 24-hour support.
6. I understand internet technology is not 100% reliable so that sessions may fail to connect or drop midway. If a session is disrupted, the therapist will attempt to reestablish contact but if that is not possible, the session may have to be rescheduled. If the case of an interrupted session, I will be charged a prorated amount.
7. I agree that I will send payment for the session promptly at it's conclusion either thru PayPal (link available at <http://www.susanwoodardtherapy.com/MakeaPayment.en.html>) or by requesting a Square invoice from the therapist.
